3. Events
 - Club City Leadership Development Workshop Series
 - Voter Registration Drive
 - The Big Clean Up – ASG partnership to clean up Barrio Logan neighborhood near campus- in partnership with local agencies, community groups and politicians, this student led effort works to promote environmental stewardship by cleaning up the colleges backyard neighborhood, known for its environmental pollution hazards.
 - Martin Luther King Jr. Parade-Grand Prize sweepstakes(2010) and 1st place recipient(2012) for “ Education, Not Incarceration”float, which also received 1st Place in Cesar Chavez day parade (2012)-student leadership has for the past four years developed floats which focus on the power of democracy through social justice. These two parades, considered perhaps the largest of parades focused on underrepresented communities in San Diego, have afforded our community college students the opportunity spread the message of social justice by emphasizing the importance of voter registration and participation; taxpayer investment in education versus incarceration; and fighting to break down barriers (immigration, discrimination;etc)
 - Conferences – Local, State, National advocacy efforts are promoted through visits to legislators.
