Advising / Orientation / Registration Academic Advising

As a student at USIU-Africa you will receive adequate guidance in regard to your course as well as advice on course selection required for your degree program, every semester.

Orientation

The Office of the Dean of Student Affairs, assists in acquainting new students with the campus, educational services and the various co-curricular activities facilitated by the Office. New students are strongly advised to attend all the orientation sessions to ensure awareness of invaluable resources on hand to enhance the campus experience. This is also an exercise parents and guardians are encouraged to be a part of.

Registration

Registering for classes prior to the beginning of any semester avoids payment of late fees and allows students time to meet with their academic advisor and complete registration procedures either before or during the orientation period.
