#	Items	Strategic Goals*	Accreditation Standards	Initiator
1	Spring 2021 tutoring support <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - D. Tran reviewed spring schedule and potential methods (live vs. drop in). Currently piloting by appointment tutoring with a personal growth and potentially expanding for special population groups such as EOPS and Promise. SI leaders will work from 2/1-5/27, walk-in tutoring will be 2/8-5/27, embedded tutors will be available in select CTE courses for the Spring of 2021 and we will continue our collaboration with College2Careers in CBTE and Paralegal courses. N.Julian submitted a CARES Funding Request to continue NetTutor in the Spring of 2021, D.Tran reviewed NetTutor usage data to support the extension. M.McMahon shared NetTutor and the funding request was discussed and supported at CEC. F.Bereaud and D.Tran discussed tutoring hours and subjects covered considering budget constraints. Currently tutoring will not be available Summer 2021. N.Julian reviewed potential cost saving measures during the Spring in order to save funds for Summer understanding that the fiscal budget closes June 30, 2020. We currently are unsure of the extent of the budget cuts for the next fiscal year. 	I, II, III	I, II, IV	Julian, Tran

2	Engaging Campus Stakeholders: Discuss academic success strategies and prioritize campus-wide academic success goals <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - D. Tran reviewed the need to expand the scope of academic success to engage a broader audience and participation across the college. D. Tran reviewed the principles of collaboration to develop relationships and work towards increasing academic success. Additionally identify barriers in other departments and identify individuals who could overcome barriers through collaboration. M. McMahon suggested clearly identifying goals to work towards. N. Julian identifies campus strategic goals and initiatives such as student equity to connect different strategies to support academic and student success. D. Miramontez supported the alignment of strategic goals and this committee of focusing broadly on academic success. D. Tran shared a google doc to brainstorm these goals. This committee should be more than just the ASC and tutoring. By identifying goals we can prioritize and perhaps reach out to specific cohorts to support their academic success. M. McMahon explained that our goals should be aligned with the charge of our committee in the latest College Governance Handbook. N. Julian and D. Miramontez explained we can review the strategic goals, purpose and charge in order to generate ideas and continue this discussion. 	I, II, III	I, II, IV	Julian, Tran
